CTPAT Corporate Statement of Support

Willson International Inc. (WII) is a proud participant of the Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (CTPAT) administered by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). We are a licensed customs broker and responsible corporate citizen of the international trade community.

WII, its management and other policy makers are committed to ongoing participation in the CTPAT program and to implement, follow and maintain procedures consistent with the CTPAT Minimum Security Criteria for licensed customs brokers. As participants in the CTPAT program, it is the policy of WII to:

- Implement, follow and maintain procedures consistent with the CTPAT Minimum Security Criteria for licensed customs brokers.
- Cooperate with CBP and other law enforcement agencies in their efforts to ensure the supply chain security.
- Devote sufficient resources to ensure supply chain security program is implemented and effectively maintained.
- Meet or exceed the recommended business and security practices defined by CBP.
- Assist in the worldwide campaign to combat terrorism and other illegal activities.
- Provide training and security guidelines for employees of WII and its' business partners.
- Provide a safe environment for our employees, customers, vendors and visitors.
- Investigate situations or significant events which may be related to a breach of CTPAT criteria and notify the proper authorities.
- Review and update security practices and procedures on a regular basis or as needed. Security is everyone's responsibility. All WII employees, service providers and visitors are expected to comply with the CTPAT minimum security criteria as well as any policies, procedures and instructions issued by WII.

As a CTPAT member in good standing we strive to highlight the importance of protecting the supply chain from nefarious parties and criminal activities including drug trafficking, terrorism, human smuggling and other forms of illegal contraband.

We recognize CTPAT is an ongoing commitment to partnership with CBP to secure the international supply chain and protect our country's security.
